■ Look as Good as You Feel at Any Age

We all want to look and feel our very best every day. It's a direct reflection of our confidence and often competence as an individual. Yet, our most noticeable and precious asset which reflects our well-being is our face. So why trust its care to just anyone? To feel your best and achieve a look that's totally you, trust the team at Campbell Facial Plastic Surgery and Quintessa Medical Spa in Sheboygan.

Campbell Facial Plastic Surgery is lead by Dr. Andrew Campbell, a double board-certified facial plastic surgeon, who specializes in facelifts, rhinoplasty, eye and brow lifts, and complete facial reconstruction. He created the Paragon Medical Center, a fully accredited state-of-the art surgical center, to provide patients with a single destination for both surgical and non-surgical procedures. Each of the on-site operating suites has been expertly decorated with your comfort and care in mind. Details like exquisite bedding, soft robes and the view of full-length wall murals provide a calm, relaxing atmosphere. The private recovery area also ensures your complete confidentiality.

Additional post-operative and non-surgical care is provided by the professionals at Quintessa Medical Spa. Located inside the Paragon Medical Center, Quintessa Medical Spa offers a variety of products and services to help restore your skin and maintain its healthy look for life. Quintessa offers non-surgical skin care services such as skin resurfacing, microdermabrasion, laser hair and vein removal, intense pulsed light pigment removal, Oxy-Mist, permanent makeup and eye lash enhancement. Injectable treatments like BOTOX, Radiesse and Rejuvaderm are also available to enhance your skin's appearance. Quintessa also carries a full line of pharmaceutical grade skin care products like are Obagi Nu-Derm System, Skin Therapy by DermaQuest, ColorScience and Jan Marini to help you look and feel your best every day.

Custom, personalized service is not just a goal at Campbell Facial Plastic Surgery and Quintessa Medical Spa, it's what our surgeons and experienced health care professionals provide every day to each of our patients.
